Genealogy of the Van Dyck Family

The family came from Utrecht in 1645. The original ancestor was Hendrick Van Dyck. He was School Fiscal, a kind of financial agent and customs officer, under Gov. Stuyvesant who dismissed him from office. Van Dyck applied to the State General for redress and was reinstated in 1652. He states that he had served the East Indian Company 13 years as Ensign, Commandant, and School Fiscal and that in 1652 he had a wife and four children. He married Dorotje Cornelius. He died in 1688. Of his children he names only the following:-

Cornelius and Lydia, wife of Nicholas De Myer. Dr. Cornelius Van Dyck, son of Hendrick, received a surgeons certificate in 1661 from Dr. Jacob D. Hine, with whom he studied four years. He married first Elizabeth Sakers and 2nd Elizabeth Rich, widow of Captain Sylvester Salisbury. Dr. Cornelius died about 1687. The following children were baptised at dates named:-

At a meeting of our fathers and uncles all being assembled at Kinderhook on the 14th Sept. 1832 in the house where they were born and brought up.

It was ascertained as follows:

Laurens Van Dyck our father was born November 17<sup>3</sup>58 and died July 14 1814 aged 75 years 8 mo.

Maria Van der Poel, our Mother was born
She died Nov. 3, 1823 aged about 78 years.

Hendrick B. Van Dyck our uncle who always lived in our father's house, and to whose pious care we are in very great measures indebted - under God for our Christian education - was born <sup>in</sup> July 1732.

He died May 3. 1822, aged 84 yrs and 10 months.

Our father and uncle removed to the place where we were born about the year 1750 with their fatherARENT Van Dyck and their mother

(Henry (above) has more grandchildren but they are enumerated under the name of Arent, whose son married Henry's daughter Maria.
Although the brothers have thus lost 4 wives, 16 children and 10 grandchildren, among the brothers themselves there has not been a death in 50 years.

The 8 brothers & their 7 wives are all possessors of religion. The brothers are all members of Temperance societies. All of them abstain entirely, ardent spirits not using it even as a medicine.

Four of them abstain entirely and two more of them now agreed hereafter to abstain from all intoxicating liquors — They all maintain family worship — and all agreed to forgive one another all offences.

Inquiry was made whether they all maintained secret prayer addressed by one of the brothers

All were put in remembrance of the great goodness of the Lord towards them and over unworthiness of the least of his favours. They were all reminded of the chastisement which they had suffered from their Heavenly Father and the duty of living more entirely to his glory.

It was agreed that each of the brothers should copy the preceding statements into their family Bibles.

Van Slyke Pedigree

3

Leunis Van Slyke settled one mile south of where New Baltimore now stands on the west bank of the Hudson. Built the stone house, 1713, the roof of which fell in July 1884. The deed giving his lands to his sons Andries and Pieter is now before me, dated 1741. The name is spelled Van Slyck. The name comes from the channel called Het slaack in the Netherlands, which makes Lake Island.
